Kevin and his neighbors turned to Housing Committee Chair Muriel Bowser for help after they were threatened with losing their homes. Muriel Bowser ignored their requests. Fortunately, David Catania stood up for Kevin and his neighbors and saved 300 of the last remaining low-income units in downtown D.C.

WE FACE AN AFFORDABLE HOUSING CRISIS. SO WHERE IS MURIEL BOWSER?

- Muriel Bowser did nothing while $100 million in federal assistance for affordable housing went unspent.
- Bowser also turned her back on the residents of the Park Southern Apartments in Ward 8, even after they complained of mold, rodents and dangerous water leaks. Instead, Bowser chose to protect two top campaign supporters who are now the subject of a federal criminal investigation involving their management of the property.
- Bowser has yet to pass one substantive solution on affordable housing.
