INDIANA ROAD SAFETY ISN'T A GAME...

... WHY DOES GOV. PENCE TREAT IT LIKE IT IS?

WHY IS MIKE PENCE PLAYING GAMES WITH YOUR FAMILY'S SAFETY?

After years of ignoring the sorry state of Indiana's roads and bridges to create the illusion of a big surplus, Gov. Mike Pence has yielded to public pressure and announced that he'll release some funds for infrastructure improvements.¹

But if you look closely, you'll see that it's just more political games from Pence. Unfortunately for Indiana families, Pence's game leaves our safety at risk.

80% of Indiana's structurally unsound bridges won't receive one cent from Pence's plan² — that's 4 out of 5 of the bridges your family might cross every day.

Studies indicate 98% of Indiana local roads and bridges are not adequately funded³ and Pence's plan provides ZERO funding for our local roads and bridges.⁴ Pence's plan barely scratches the surface...he's really just playing another political game.
